Because of the experience and commitment we bring to every matter, Forman Holt Eliades & Ravin is the counsel of choice for many businesses facing difficult commercial and economic issues. We bring the same level of commitment to excellence to matters involving our clients who are not engaged in business. When facing challenging transactions involving real estate or other property interests, clients appreciate that Forman Holt Eliades & Ravin possesses the specialized skill and knowledge to close the transaction.

Our extensive knowledge and experience in bankruptcy and insolvency law permits us to find creative transactional solutions, for both businesses and individuals. Of course, many of our clients do not face economic complications, and their transactions may be straightforward and routine. But Forman Holt Eliades & Ravin can also make difficult or troubled transactions happen.

Whether you are a lender or a borrower seeking counsel on a work-out, Forman Holt Eliades & Ravin has the experience to assist you. Our insights in insolvency law enable our commercial clients to restructure existing transactions without assuming additional or unforeseen risks. Likewise, we use our specialized knowledge of insolvency law to assist our commercial and individual clients, confronted with economic issues, to preserve and protect their existing property interests.
