

FORMAN HOLT & ELIADES IS ONE OF THE MOST successful firms dedicated to bankruptcy law and business insolvency matters in New Jersey today. Based in Bergen County, New Jersey, with additional offices in New York and Philadelphia, this elite 14-attorney firm has earned a reputation for effectively resolving and managing insolvency-related disputes across the commercial spectrum.

With roots dating to the late 1970s, Forman Holt & Eliades has represented all parties in bankruptcy proceedings, from creditors to debtors to trustees. The firm's teams of attorneys focus on loan workouts, transactional work, restructurings, as well as Chapter 11 and Chapter 13 reorganizations and Chapter 7 liquidations. The firm is known for handling some of the most complex and challenging Chapter 11 work in the region.

What's more, Forman Holt & Eliades is long known for its national presence in franchise-related work, and serves as national bankruptcy counsel to the hospitality and real estate divisions of the largest franchisor in the world.

Forman Holt & Eliades also aggressively litigates highly contested cases on behalf of its clients in state, federal and bankruptcy courts.

FORMIDABLE EXPERTISE IN BANKRUPTCY LAW

Forman Holt & Eliades has participated in major bankruptcy cases involving real estate, technology, telecommunications, securities, employee-benefit issues and lender disputes. Further, the firm is well known for its handling of commercial fraud cases, including the investigation and litigation of insider malfeasance claims.

One of the firm's founders, Charles Forman, has served as trustee in major Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 bankruptcy cases of national significance. In 2002 Forman was recognized by the U.S. Department of Justice for his exemplary work as a bankruptcy trustee, receiving the National Director's Award for Outstanding Achievements by a Private Trustee.

Not all of the clients referred to Forman Holt & Eliades are headed to bankruptcy court. Often clients will seek counsel prior to or when considering a bankruptcy filing, to learn that they might have options other than bankruptcy. "Our job," says Daniel Eliades, "is to assess the problems of distressed businesses and individuals — and pursue the best course available for them."

With formidable expertise, experience and integrity, the firm of Forman Holt & Eliades brings a creative and results-oriented focus to its clients. Says Michael Holt: "Our attorneys have the depth of experience and the dedication to guide our clients through a challenging process — and help them ultimately succeed."
